Re: Catlin Bros., Inc.

Dear Sirs:

The taxpayer received a notice of administrative dissolution of their corporation. I explained to the taxpayer the purpose of this notice and it resulted from them not paying the annual report by May 1, 2001. They informed me that they never received the original forms that are mailed in the beginning of the year.

They stated that if the forms were received, they would either forward them to me for instructions or they would have called me to inquire about the forms. In addition, their attorney who incorporated them did not advise them of this annual requirement. Therefore, they request you accept the enclosed check for $150 and the signed form for reinstatement for the year 2001.

If you have any additional questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

DAILY & TSAGARIS, PA
