RE: Uniform Business Report

Good afternoon;

Lowery's USA, Inc. and Lowery's Vacation Homes, Inc. is both our client and has asked us to respond to a notice received from your office. The above mentioned corporations were administratively dissolved for lack of filing.

Our client purchased two international money orders and mailed along with the original Uniform Business Report for each corporation on April 14, 2003. We were notified in August by the client that he had received UBR's reflecting a higher amount due prior to September 2003. He called to ask "why"? I phoned your office and spoke with Eula on August 11, 2003. She told me to have him stop payment, get new checks, and submit signed copies of original UBR's along with letter of explanation. Our client is an "overseas" client taking much longer to communicate. We have finally received all the above including a copy of cancelled money orders purchased in April 2003.

We are respectfully requesting that both of our clients' corporations be reinstated and all penalties waived. Your consideration is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Debbie Taylor
