To whom it may concern;

My business address has changed since last year, Oct of 2002. I submitted a change of address for the business with the U.S. Post Office, but did not receive a uniform business report to file last year. Realizing this, I enquired online and via telephone approximately a week ago and explained the error to a staff member at the Division of Corporations, who was very helpful. They advised me that under some circumstances, such as corporate relocation, forms may not get to the intended recipient and I may write a letter explaining the circumstances and send the $ 150.00 UBR fee. Please help me with this postal error and reinstate my corporation as it is causing me difficulty in moving forward with my business. For reference, the old address was;

4901 NE 26th Ave
Forth Lauderdale, Fl 33308

Thank you very much for your cooperation. You may contact me at phone number 561-261-8646 or at the above address if further information is required. Once again, thank you.

Sincerely,

Matthew J. Herman
