RE: Reinstatement of corporation
Fed ID #65-1045542
Document #P00000094630

December 7, 2001

To Whom It May Concern,

As per instructions, I am sending in all appropriate paperwork for reinstatement of our corporation as well as the $150.00 filing fee. Also, as per instructions, I have attached the back up information showing why the paperwork for our first filing, due in September 2001, was not filed.

Please find:

1. Letter to Division of Corporations dated 6/01/01 requesting a temporary address change for mailing due to the fact we had not yet moved into our rented office space. Although we had rented the space and had/have in our possession a legal and binding lease, due to construction modifications, we were unable to take occupancy and therefore requested our mail to be forwarded to a new address until further notice.
2. US Postal Address change dated 6/01/01 requesting a temporary address change for all mail until 12/01/01. It was the week of 12/01/01 when we received the Application For Reinstatement, and at the Sheridan Street address, not the address in which we had been receiving mail. In addition to that, we also received additional mail from the post office that was never forwarded. The mail had been held, not forwarded, until the instructed forwarding date of 12/01/01!

I am very concerned about the dissolution notice and am anxious to be reinstated. Please contact me at the numbers above if you have any further questions.

Thank you very much in advance for your time,
