Subject: Request Waive of Late Fee

To Whom This Concerns,

Recently I e-mailed your office and was instructed to send a letter with my report explaining why I am requesting a waive of the 'late' fee. Therefore, I am writing to request that the late fee be waived for the following reason:

I don't recall having received an initial 2003 Uniform Business Report in the beginning of the year. The only report I had was the one dated to report by September 10, 2003. If I had the first report I probably would have thrown it away assuming that I was sent two reports and they were duplicates. That's all I can think could have happened if I was sent the first report. All I saw was the report that I had to file by 9/10/03.

I have enclosed the initial fee of $150. Please let me know the status of my filing. Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

John Kamradt
President
