Dear Division of Corporations,

I called your office today because I recieved a notice of intent to revoke or dissolve our corporation due to non-filing of the 2001 Uniform business Report status, but I did indeed mail the 2001 Uniform business Report with a check for $150 months ago. I called your office to determine if this notice was sent in error, but was told that your office had not received my Report or check. The paperwork was not returned to me by mail, and the check has not yet been presented through my bank. Your office instructed me to re-submit the documents with $150 accompanied with a letter of explanation in order to waive any additional fees and to reinstate our corporation.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Jeffery S. Stewart
