Dear Sir or Madam:

I incorporated Sloan-Kendall Realty Services, Inc. last October. This week I was filing the UBR that I believed that was due by September 12th and noticed that the amount was $550.00. I was astonished at this fee and called to see why it was so high as the fee on my other corporation was only $150.00 for the UBR.

I was told that the fee was high because I did not file as required in May. I did not file because I did not receive a notice for the May report date. Your representative said that it was sent and that there was nothing returned by the post office. My mailing address is in a new development and I have had trouble with my mail delivery. I do not know if this was the problem with the May report, however I am requesting that my fee for the UBR be the standard $150.00 and regret any inconvenience that this may have caused.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Very truly,

Danese Sloan-Kendall
