To Whom It May Concern:

Re: 2001 Uniform Business Report Corp. Fee

We have recently (July 2001) received our first notice from your office regarding fee's due. The notice read file now, due September 12, 2001. This was our first notice regarding any fees due. We are a newly formed Corporation, and our address is still the same. We are not sure how you missed us in your notice process, but ask that you understand these things happen. When I first received this information, we immediately forwarded the document to our attorney's office (Fowler White). They assured us they were never notified either.

In good faith we are enclosing our check # 1267 for $150.00 (the appropriate UBR 2001 Corp. annual fee), which was explained to us today by your office personnel Kathy Ashton. We ask that you accept this amount as our payment in full for our new corporation.
