Dear Sir/madam

The reason why I am writing this letter to you is because I have been asked to pay $600.00 additional money for my corporation I paid the money when I was due at the beginning of the year in order to avoid this problem. I never heard from you guys then I called and spoke to a guy there named Tyron and he said yes they had my money and they just needed a number for the corporation that I was to write that in the paper and send it back, but now when I did that you have sent the paper back saying I need to pay for some penalty when, I had sent my money in time, I am begging you please to reconsider this desicion and waive this charge and set up my corporation in good status.

Sincerely yours,

Aracelys M san Juan

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am really concerned over the fact that I had a phone conversation with your office last week over the fact that I had sent my report and the money for the new corporation but had not heard anything at all yet, please let me know, what is going on.

Thank you;
