Dear Sir or Madam:

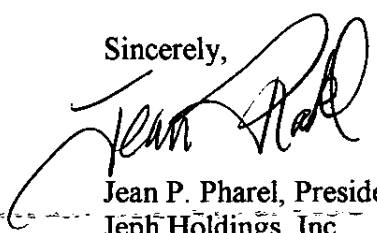

This letter is to request a waiver for the penalty that is assessed as a result of the dissolution of Jeph Holdings, Inc.

In 2001, the corporation moved and changed its address. Even though I processed a change of address form, we did not receive the uniform report form. Furthermore, in processing my state, county, and city licenses, the business address was changed and updated. We were not aware that each department maintains a separate address database.

Jeph Holdings, Inc. is a law-abiding entity and would not purposefully ignore such an important obligation, for its income tax returns, licenses, tangible taxes and every other obligation that the government required was processed on time in 2001. Therefore, the uniform report wasn't submitted because I never received a form.

I think you in advance for your merciful understanding and for waiving the penalty. As per the document specialist's instruction, I have enclosed $150 for 2001 and $150 for 2002.

Sincerely,

Jean P. Pharel, President
Jeph Holdings, Inc.
