To Whom It May Concern:

It has come to my attention that we have not filed our 2002 Profit Corporation Annual Report, which was due before May 1st of 2002.

To the best of my knowledge we never received the notice which the corporation should have received. The corporation had some changes in the accounting department the first part of this year and may not have received all of its mail. I understand this is not your problem, however, I respectfully request your assistance and understanding in this matter.

I wish to keep this corporation active and would like to insure the corporation is/was not dissolved. Please accept this copy of the filing form and a check for $150.00 for the above year, made payable to the Department of State, Division of Corporations.

I respectfully request any additional penalties and or interest be waived.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding in this matter. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Josef J. Zekri
