I'm writing to you because we have been trying to move since March of this year, we have a lot of trouble with the construction and repairs of the new local, we have stuff in both places until we finally move on May 30/01. All of this cause we lost your paper. We are very sorry about that, this thing never happen before and I'm sure will not happen again. We are very short of money and a fine over this ~~late~~ lateness will affect us in great deal. We are asking you to forgive us for this time and allow my late check of $150.00.

We appreciate your understanding
