RE: 2001 Uniform Business Report for Days Point, Inc
Document Number 00000100680

To whom it may concern:

I received today my first correspondence, after Incorporating, from the Division of Corporations informing me that I am late filing my 2001 Uniform Business Report. This would be my first Uniform Business Report since incorporating Days Point.

I incorporated Days Point on October 26, 2000. I was not aware that I had to file my report within such close proximity to my date of incorporation. In addition, I have had interment difficulty with my Post Office. In some cases my mail has not been delivered at all. I did not receive the Uniform Business Report documents that were sent in January. Had I, I would have been aware that I needed to file the Report in first quarter 2001.

I assure you that I handle my affairs responsibly and would not have let this occur if I had received the original Report Documents.

Enclosed is my check for $150.00. I would appreciate it if you would waive the $400.00 late fee. This will not happen again.

This letter is written and submitted in good faith and all of the above statements are true.

Thank you.

Respectfully yours,

Alan D. Roeder
