Any such agreement may include such restrictions during the lifetime of any Stockholder. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of the Corporation shall be construed as authorizing a transfer of such stock upon the books of the Corporation in violation of any such agreement.

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

A. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of his being or having been a Director or any officer of the Corporation, or a Director or officer of any other corporation which he served as such at the request of the Corporation, against the reasonable expenses, including but no limited to attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with an appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which such Director may be adjudged to have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation.

B. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director made a party to any action, suit, or proceeding other than one by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, whether civil or criminal, brought to impose a liability or penalty on such Director for and act alleged to have been committed by such Director in his capacity as Director or as an officer of the Corporation, or in the capacity of a Director or officer of any other corporation which he served as such at the request of the Corporation, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including but no limited to attorney's fees actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding, or any appeal therein, if such Director acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Corporation, and in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable grounds for belief that such action was unlawful. The termination of any such civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by judgment, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere shall not in itself create a presumption that any Director did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Corporation or that he had reasonable grounds for belief that such action was unlawful.

ARTICLE XIII

ARTICLE XIV

REIMBURSEMENT OF DIRECTORS

If any legal, equitable or other action, suit or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Corporation against a Director, either individually or as Director, shall result in a judgment, decree or decision in favor of the Director, the Corporation shall be liable to and shall reimburse the Director for all costs and

A Director shall not be liable for dividends illegally declared, distributions illegally made to Stockholders, or any other action taken by reliance in good faith upon the financial statements of the Corporation represented to him to be correct by an officer having charge of its books of account or a financial statement certified by a Certified Public Accountant to fairly reflect the financial condition of the Corporation; not shall he be liable if, in good faith in determining the amount available for dividends or distribution, he considers the assets to be of their book value.

ARTICLE XVI

AMENDMENTS

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal By-Laws shall be vested in the Board of Directors and Stockholders.

ARTICLE XVII

CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Stockholders of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting, if consent in writing setting forth the action shall be signed by all, but not less than all, of the Stockholders of the Corporation entitled to vote on the action and shall be filed by the secretary of the Corporation. This consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote at a Stockholders' meeting. If all of the Directors, severally or collectively, likewise, consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the Corporation, the action shall be as valid as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE XVIII
RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF STOCK

No Stockholder shall transfer (voluntarily or involuntarily) or encumber any of his shares of capital stock of this Corporation to any person, partnership, firm association, trust, corporation, or other entity without the consent of the other Stockholder(s) unless the Stockholder desiring to make the transfer or encumbrance shall have first made the offer to sell upon the same terms and conditions to the remaining Stockholder(s) in proportion to their proportionate share of the issued stock and such offer shall not have been accepted after reasonable notice by any of the remaining Stockholder(s).

Provided, however, this restriction shall not apply to the transfer of any stock to a spouse of an existing Stockholder.
