RE: P00000102150

Dear Madam/Sir:

Thank you for the letter dated July 13, 2001.

As per our records the check for the payment for the annual report along with the Uniform Business Report form were issued, filled and mailed by April 23 and 24, 2001. We were confident that it would reach your office by the dead line.

After receiving your letter we contacted your Division by phone and learned, after speaking with a representative of the Department of Reinstatement, that our check reached you long after the due date.

I don't know exactly what happened neither I know why it took so many time for the check to arrive to the Division of Corporation.

I'd appreciate you wave the late fee imposed and file our annual report.

Sincerely,

Eduardo Delucchi
