Dear Sirs

While we had completed the attached 2001 Uniform Business Report before the deadline of May 1st, we discovered that our company registration agent had not listed any name of the director or signing officer. This has only been completed today and we felt it was necessary to retain this document until this was complete.

We hope we did the right thing and that the late payment penalty will not be applicable since we had a genuine reason for the delay. This fact can be checked through the Secretary of State office and we can also produce a letter from our registering agent should you require further proof.

Yours sincerely

Renate K. Hamilton
President
