IX. SHARE STRUCTURE

Name and Type

9.1. The maximum number of shares that the Corporation is authorized to have outstanding is forty (40) shares of common stock having no par value.

Restrictions on Issuance and Transfer

9.2. No share of stock of this Corporation shall be issued or transferred to any person who is not an attorney, duly licensed to practice law.

Authority of Board of Directors

9.3. Shares without par value may be issued pursuant to subscriptions taken by the incorporators for any consideration that may be specified by the incorporators, and after organization shares without par value may be issued on such consideration as may be fixed by the Board of Directors. The Board, in its discretion, may fix different amounts or kinds of consideration for the issuance of shares without par value, whether issued at the same time or at different times. Any and all shares without par value, the consideration for which has been fixed by the incorporators or the Board of Directors and has been paid or delivered, shall be fully paid and non-assessable.

Dividends

9.4. The Board of Directors is authorized to fix and determine whether any, and if any, what part of the surplus, however created or arising, shall be used, declared in dividends, or paid to shareholders without action by the shareholders, to the use or surplus, or any part thereof, as is permitted by corporate law, for the purchase or acquisition of shares, voting trust certificates for shares, bonds, debentures, notes, scrip, warrants, obligations, evidences or indebtedness or other securities of the Corporation.

X. STATED CAPITAL

The amount of capital with which the Corporation shall begin business is ten ($10.00).

XI. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES

The Corporation reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to amend these Articles of Incorporation in the manner or hereafter permitted by statute. Any change authorized by the holders of shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of the Corporation (or such greater number as may then be required by statute), shall be binding and conclusive on every shareholder of the Corporation as fully as if each shareholder had voted for the change. No shareholder, notwithstanding that he or she may have voted against the amendment or may have objected in writing, shall be entitled to payment of the fair cash value of his or her shares or any other rights of a dissenting shareholder.

XII. INTERESTED DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

A director or officer of the Corporation shall not be disqualified from office solely because the director or officer dealt or contracted with the Corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent or otherwise. No act of the Corporation shall be void or voidable by reason of the fact that any director or officer of this Corporation is also a member of the firm; an officer, director, shareholder or trustee of a corporation; a trustee or beneficiary of a trust; or otherwise connected with any other enterprise that is in any way interested in the act. The fact that the director or officer, or that the firm, corporation, trust, or other entity is interested shall be disclosed to the members of the board present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on the transaction is taken. The transaction must be authorized by an affirmative vote of the majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Any interested director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors that authorizes or takes actions in respect to any such transaction. No interested director may vote to authorize, ratify, or approve the transaction. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, if in any judicial or other inquiry, suit, cause, or proceeding, the question of whether a statute of rule of law or equity to the contrary, his or her good faith shall be presumed, in the absence of clear and convincing evidence of proof of the contrary.

XIII. INDEMNIFICATION

Right to Indemnification

13.1. To the extent the law permits, the Corporation shall indemnify each of its officers, directors, and employees, whether or not then in office, and his or her heirs and legal representatives, against all expenses, judgments, decrees, fines, penalties, other amounts actually and reasonably incurred, in settlement of, or in connection with the defense of any pending or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, civil or criminal, to which he or she or may be made a party by reason of having been a director, officer, or employee of the Corporation. Without limitation, the terms "expenses" shall include all counsel fees, expert witness fees, court costs, and any other costs of similar nature. The Corporation shall not, however, indemnify any officer, director, or employee until the Board of Directors consisting of the Directors who were not parties to such action, has determined by a majority of the directors who were not parties to such action, that the officer, director, or employee:

- (a) Was not grossly negligent in his or her duty to the Corporation, nor guilty of intentional misconduct in the performance of duties to the Corporation;
- (b) Acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation; and
- (c) In any matter subject to criminal action, suit or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

Written Demand for Indemnification

13.2. Any officer, director or employee who is entitled to indemnification from the Corporation may make a written demand on the Board of Directors, by serving the written demand on the president or the Secretary (unless the President and the Secretary are both making the demand, in which case service may be made on any other officer of the Corporation). If the Board of Directors does not, within fifteen (15) days after service of the written demand, determine that the officer, director, or employee is entitled to indemnification, the officer, director, or employee may within sixty (60) days following date of service of demand, apply to a court of general jurisdiction in the county in which the Corporation maintains its principal office, to consider the matters referred to in Subparagraphs (a), (b), and (c) of paragraph 13.1. If the Court determines that the conduct of the officer, director, or employee was such as to meet the requirements in the subparagraphs, the court shall order the Corporation to indemnify the officer, director, or employee to the same extent as if the Board of Directors originally made the determination.
