To-Whom-It-May-Concern:

With this letter I would like to inform you that I received a notice from your department informing me that I did not send the Business uniform report of 2001 with the $150.00 fee.

I am sure that the Business Uniform report was sent with the check. The check was received but sent back because you say that the report was not included.

Since this company is just beginning operations the person in charge was not in Florida during the time the letter arrived.

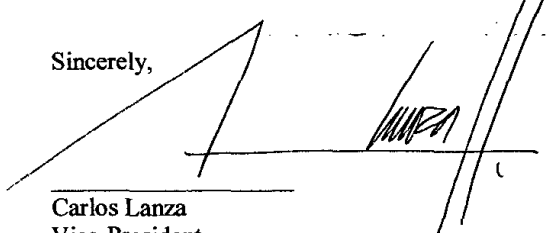

Unfortunately when he returned back to Florida from Europe the time that you gave us was expired.

I am enclosing copy of the Business uniform return 2001 and the original fee.

I hope that this does not cause any inconvenience and I would appreciate it if someone could help is out in this situation.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Sincerely,

Carlos Lanza
Vice-President
Gestel Technologies, Inc.
