Dear Sir or Madam:

The above referenced taxpayers have asked us to respond on their behalf concerning the late filing of their 2002 Uniform Business Report.

The 2001 UBR was the first report required to be filed by the taxpayers. Their attorney processed the filing of that form.

The ultimate shareholders of the taxpayers are Guatemalan residents and spend little time in the United States. Their attorney did not advise them of the annual requirement to file this form, nor did he suggest that they change the corporate mailing address to his office or ours, as their certified public accountants, so as to insure timely filing of the UBR on an annual basis.

The ultimate shareholders arrived from Guatemala last week to discover the second notice in their mail. To the best of their knowledge, they did not receive the first notice. This is not surprise given the volume of mail that accumulates during their absence. They immediately contacted us to arrange for payment. You will notice that we have changed the corporate mailing address to our office so that filing will be timely in the future.

Enclosed, please find the taxpayer's checks in the amount of $150 each for payment of the 2002 UBR fee. We hope we have provided sufficient explanation to allow you to accept the original filing fee amount with the assurance that procedures have been implemented to insure timely compliance in the future.

As the taxpayers have returned to Guatemala, we respectfully request that your response be directed to us. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.
