Dear Ms. Harris,

I received the 2001 Uniform Business Report with a fee for $550.00. When I incorporated, my lawyer said nothing about a fee, likewise, my UCF business course on taxes said nothing about this fee.

I did not receive prior notification to pay this fee. When I called your office, a lady (Margaretta) asked if there was a previous address. My lawyer, for some reason, filed using her address: Box 620337, Oviedo, FL 32762. So until I could change the address all mail went to her and then she supposedly sent it on to me. Did she neglect to send this notification to me? I do not know, she says she sent everything, but I never received this form.

Margaretta said that I could apply for a waiver. I would appreciate if I would not have to pay the late fee. I am just getting started in business and money is short. I realize ignorance of the law is no excuse, but if the lawyer didn't tell me, the business tax teacher didn't tell me, how was I to know?

Hoping for your positive consideration in this matter. Thank you.

Respectfully yours,

Julie Stanick
