To Whom It May Concern:

This is Dustin Sutton, President of Brightop Cleaning Inc. I have called the Department of State and they told me to write this letter. I never received a notice about any $150.00 fee because of a change of address, plus my old registered agent never even spoke to me about the matter. I was told that could have the $600.00 fee waived so I am including a check for $300.00 dollars for the reinstatement fee. I also want to change the name of my company for Brightop Cleaning Inc. to Brightop Tree Service Inc. but I am not entirely sure what form to fill out. I also have a change of address from 929 Walnut St. Lakeland, Fl 33801 to 506 E. Lee St. Plant City, Fl 33563. I did not see a change of address form on your website. When I called, they told I could change my registered agent just by filling in the new one since my company was dissolved for no charge. I hope all of this makes since and I hope to hear from you soon to let me know what else I need to do to change address and name of the company. Also let me know if that was o.k. to change the registered agent like they said.

Sincerely,

Dustin Sutton

President
