We are sending this letter with our deepest apologies. We were just informed by our accountant last week that we should have received a renewal notice in January and had until May to get it in. We never received any form, so therefore we were completely unaware of it.

We called the Division of Corporations and spoke to someone who gave us the information we needed to get this taken care of as soon as possible.

She also informed us that since we did not meet the May deadline, there was a fine of $400.00. We explained to her that our business had just been incorporated at the end of November and we did not even work any last year.

We just got started going last month. Since we are a small business, a $400.00
