To Whom It May Concern:

I am enclosing my Report for 2003. I respectfully request that you allow me file this without penalty due to the following circumstances:

My business is small. My wife manages the business and I am the only driver. We also have two children. My wife became very sick and required hospitalization and surgery. She normally handles the corporation paperwork, but because of the sudden illness and subsequent surgery in late April, we were unable to get this paperwork in on time.

I would greatly appreciate your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely

Darrell Stone, President
