Re: #P00000113337

Dear Sir or Madame:

I have enclosed the Uniform Business Report for Avebury Properties for 2001. This report is late because I had been waiting to receive our EIN from the IRS before filing the Report. I knew the report was due in May, but I had it in my head that it was due on May 31. We just formed the corporation in December 2000, so this is all new to me. I spoke to Matt from your office who said if I had formed our corporation in January instead of December I would not even have to file for this year! We have not even begun operating under Avebury Properties yet, so the $400 late fee would be a significant hardship for our little business. I am writing to ask for a waiver of the late fee under the circumstances. I will certainly know better next year, and will already have my EIN, so there will be no need to wait. I thank you in advance for considering my request.

Very truly yours,

Linda C. Horn
