To Whom it may concern,

I was notified today October 9, 2002 that our corporation was no longer valid, so I inquired and was told that I had not filled out the uniform business report. I have gone through all my papers which I keep in my corporate file and I spoke to my CPA. He is the one I take all my papers to for advice and I find absolutely no record of this form. I called and spoke to someone this morning and they told me to download the report and mail it in with $150.00 with an explanation letter. I do live and work in a Senior Citizens Community with a common mail box area and have in the past had mail mix-ups. Maybe someone got it in their box and thought it was junk mail and discarded it. Please let me know what to do next. I have two properties pending to purchase and this is very important to me.

Sincerely,
