Dear Sirs:

On October 12, 2001, I received a notice that my Company was dissolve for not paying the annual fee for 2001. I tendered my reinstatement application the same day with a check for $750.00 and a letter stating I had not received the 2001 fee application for I had moved from the Coconut Grove, Florida to South Miami, Florida in March of 2001. I then called your office every week through November 27, 2001 to determine the status of the reinstatement.

Your Inspectors confirmed through November 27, 2001 my application was still not processed that they were already working on applications received in November. I asked what I should do. The Inspector also advised me he believed the reinstatement application had been apparently lost, to stop payment of the check and resubmit the application again. He was going to send to me a new application for reinstatement at my address 7415 SW 141 Terrace, Miami, Florida 33158.

On November 30, I went onto Sunbiz.org and to my surprise, found the Company had been activated. I called your office immediately to explain that I had placed a stop payment on the check on instructions from your Inspector in a conversation November 27, 2001.

The inspector I spoke to on Friday November 30th advised me to resubmit the application for the third time with a check for $150.00 and the letter explaining the non-receipt of the annual fee renewal.

This letter is being written to insure that you understand what is happing to my reinstatement application.

Dear Sirs:

Please refer to my letter date November 30, 2001. I confirm that I did not receive the annual fee application mailed to me at my former address of 2081 Mary Street. This despite filing a "forwarding address" change with the Post Office in late March of this year.

The reinstatement check was issued but later a stop payment placed for your Inspector advised my application has been "lost" following his confirmation November 27, 2001.

Attached is the correct filing fee of $150.00 that covers the fee due for reinstatement if the party confirms not receipt of the annual filing fee registration.

Respectfully,

Peter D. Beebe
