—Re: 2002 Uniform Business Report—

Dear Representative,

Enclosed with this letter is our updated 2002 UBR along with our check for $150.

Please note that this report had been prepared sometime during the end of April. The completed report was inadvertently "filed" in an inbox of an employee who had left our employment several months ago. It was only when we received your late notice that we noticed that the check written was still outstanding and then searched our office to find the original report.

We respectfully request that the late fee be waived due to the set of circumstances listed above. We are a small family owned business and did not intentionally mean for this to be late. If you need any additional information, please feel free to call me. I apologize for any inconvenience this has caused. Thank-you for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully,

Barrie Taft
