Dear Sir:

I am enclosing two checks for $150 dollars and ask that both corporations be reactivated. Neither business received any notification of dissolution. Our accountant also claims that he never received any notifications. All parties involved believed that an annual report would be mailed to the corporations if an annual filing was necessary. Since the corporations did not actively open for business as a corporation until January of 2001, although incorporated in December of 2000, all parties again believed no annual report would be do until 2002. Therefore, no report was filed in 2001 because the parties did not receive an annual report and were under the belief that none was necessary.

Please accept our check and regrets that an annual report was not filed. This will not happen again. I ask again that you reinstated both corporations.

Thank you,

Niclaas Van Gennep- President
