Re: 2001 Uniform Business Report
Document # PO1000001 101

Having a business of my own has been a bit overwhelming, and as you will note I am not getting it all together like I should. It has come to my attention that I am delinquent with returning the above document to your office on time.

I do have an explanation for part of the delinquency and hopefully it will be acceptable so that the delinquent fee will be waived. Our family, as a whole, has experienced several medical traumas over the last six months and the mail has been gathered and stacked unfortunately for much of the time. This past week, we were sorting through some of the piles and came across the above document. My husband phoned the state office and spoke with a gentleman. The man's suggestion was to mail the check for $150.00 and a written explanation for the delinquency.

So, please find enclosed a check for $150.00. We are working diligently to get our business organized in such a way that all taxes and fees are paid in a timely fashion.

Sincerely,

Deborah A. Spiess
President
