To Whom It May Concern:

October 25, 2002

This letter is in reference to First Access Realty, Inc. & Document # P01000001141 located at 2500 East Hallandale Beach Blvd. Suite 705 Hallandale, FL. 33009. First Access Realty moved to the new address more than eight months ago, at that time we filed a change of address form with the US post office. First Access Realty Inc. also sent change of address information to the DBPR division of Real Estate of the division of Incorporation with the State of Florida. We never received any notice for the division of Corporation concerning anything that needed to be filed. Last night I was searching the website to possibly form a new corporation with a different purpose than Real Estate, I had never looked up how First Access Realty Inc. to see how it appeared, I have just now found that my corporation had been dissolved. At no time over the past year I would not have been able to pay 150.00 to the state that allows me to operate my small business. I filed all of the necessary paperwork to show the change of address, in good faith. Please help me by allowing me to file with the charge of 150.00 for reinstatement and waive the 750.00 dollars in charges for my unintentional mistake. Enclosed you will find a check for First Access Realty, Inc, as always thank you for your time.

Very Sincerely

Isabel Collins
President/ Vice President/ Treasurer
