Re: Corellas Charters, Inc. (P01000001876)

I have been hired to prepare the corporate tax returns for the above referenced taxpayer. I have just received the second notice to file the 2001 Uniform Business Report.

This corporation is a new business in 2001. The shareholder was advised by an attorney to incorporate and did so the very last days of December 2000. This generated the corporate filing fee even though the business did not commence operations until 2001. The sole shareholder was unfamiliar with the form and did not respond by the filing deadline.

I respectfully ask that you abate all penalties for late filing. The taxpayer did not willfully ignore the filing fees. In the future, all fees will be timely paid.

Sincerely,

Dawne Shaine Mobley
