Dear Ms Williams:

This is a formal reply to the above-referenced letter. There has been an oversight concerning the 2002 corporate annual report/uniform business report form. It is apparent that we did not receive any communication or forms from your department for this filing year. I have checked our records and cannot find receipt of such forms for the 2002 report. As is evidenced by the fact that for the 2003 report, we, again, did not receive any direct mailing from your department. An inquiry was made to your department and we were told that perhaps this report "got lost in the mail" so, therefore I should pull the forms off the internet, which, in fact, I did, so as not to miss the filing deadline.

I am, therefore, requesting that your department waive the reinstatement fee, as I believe both your department and our corporation acted in good faith.

As requested, I am attaching a copy of your letter along with the fees for both the 2002 and the 2003 filings.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this request.

Sincerely,

T. M. Russo, Chief Financial Officer
