To Whom It Concerns:

I am writing to request removal of the $400 late fee for my corporation and ask that you accept my check for $150 for the filing fee for 2002 (per instructions from your department).

I amended my corporate name this past March and did not receive a the enclosed report until last month. When I did not receive the report, I assumed that I needed to do nothing else for this year. I apologize for the error.

I thank you in advance for your favorable consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Kevin M. Farnsworth

Re: Farnsworth Enterprises, Inc.

Dear Ms. Ashton:

Enclosed are the papers I received from your office along with the information requested. Unfortunately, I have been having trouble getting mail at my corporate address and your request did not reach me in time to respond in the time you allowed.

It has been extremely frustrating for me since the road construction and other construction in the area seems to be affecting my mail delivery. I either don't get mail or it comes very late. I am hoping that your office will take this into consideration and extend your deadline so my corporation is not dissolved according to the letter I received. Or if it has, that it will be reinstated without delay.

Also, the letter was addressed to Farnsworth Lawn Service, Inc., but the report was correctly listed as Farnsworth Enterprises, Inc. I am worried that this may be messing things up too.

Thank you for your courteous help to my staff and also for assisting us with our situation.

Sincerely,

Kevin M. Farnsworth
