Dear Sir/Madam:

My accountant advised that my corporation, Jeseb, Inc. is inactive. I have no recollection of receiving a renewal form from the Division of Corporations in 2003 when, apparently, I was suppose to renew my application. I am enclosing my corporation check in the amount of $150.00 for 2003 so that my corporation will be reactivated.

I would truly appreciate your abating any penalty charges associated with this late filing.

Very Truly Yours,

Jessica Broderick Chong

RE: DOCUMENT #P010000004930

Dear Mr. Tyrone Scott:

This letter is in response to your reply to my first letter concerning abating any penalty charges associated with the late filing. According to your response letter, the 2003 annual report/uniform business report was returned by the US Postal Service as undeliverable.

Enclosed is the letter I originally sent to you and the response letter, along with the reinstatement form. Also, a check for $150 for 2004 is enclosed along with a check for $8.75 for a certificate of status. Enclosed with my first letter was a check for $150 for 2003.

This should conclude this matter. Thank you for your cooperation and assistance.

Very Truly Yours,

Jessica Broderick Chong
