In respond to a recent phone call, I am writing you this quick note. We have been in business since March of 2001. During this time, we turn all the state and federal information to an account we use monthly. We have never received any notification of our corporation fees being due. In fact, I never knew they had to be done. If we were notified, this would be done just like our sales tax id, bond, insurance and dealers liscense were renewed. Please take this into consideration. I have enclosed a check in the amount of $150.00 per your department.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at your earliest convience. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Andrew A. Marr
President
