Hello,

Thank you for the reminder that this was due.

I have searched my desk and its surrounding plus my file cabinet in the garage and have not located any paper work like this.

My neighbor, who is an accountant, explained some of this paperwork's requirements and the lady CPA I use once a year for the complicated stuff (almost everything) explained the rest.

As I understand it, had I received the original I would have mailed a check to you. Since I incorporated recently this would have been the first time I would have faced this particular form.

Please understand this is definitely a part-time business with the Snuffers in the garage and the kitchen table used for assembling the POS display- for the few that I sell.

The product is a new concept for eigerette smokers and has not caught on so the going is very, very rough right now.

It is my hope that the enclosed check will satisfy the state. I'm not a crook and am not trying to dodge any commitment. As a retired military man I'm accustomed to following the rules. Had I gotten the form I would have mailed it back.

To see the Snuffer, and its very low selling price which is why I'm struggling, please go to

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Ms. Hood.

This letter is a second appeal for a waiver of the $750.00 fine for the late submission of the URB and the $100.00 annual fee.

I have agonized for weeks about this situation and discussed it with a CPA, several business accountants, several business owners and the local press. They all say the same thing - the punishment does not fit the crime.

This is what Florida newspapers are writing about – the big corporations pay no taxes and the little guys, like me, get shafted to make up for it.

Because of starting this manufacturing business over two years ago I am deeply in debt and struggling. To me, $750.00 is a fortune that I simply don't have. I work a full time job and have a part-time position to make ends meet and pay the debts. Then I work this business in my "spare time." I still believe in its potential.

- 1. I did not receive the original paperwork.
- 2. Upon receiving the notice I immediately completed the form and sent the check along with the first appeal for a waiver.
- 3. Then, without any communication or warning, this "Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation" and the onerous fine arrived.

Please grant this request!
