Dear Sirs:

We have received a Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation. Regarding our 2002 Uniform Business Report, we filed this report on line and attempted to pay the $150.00 by credit card on April 30, 2002, using the instructions provided in the UBR Packet.

Your website did not give any confirmation number but did say that "the request was being processed, do not resubmit." When I rechecked the status of the filing, I received the same message about the request being processed. I assumed that all was OK, but evidently, the request was never processed! Furthermore, we never received a second UBR filing notice.

I assure you we had no desire to dissolve this corporation and did take the appropriate action to file and pay the fee. Therefore, we respectfully request that the reinstatement fee be waived. We are forwarding our UBR and a check for $150.00 per the packet instructions.

Please reply to this office at the address above.

Respectfully yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Richard G. Gilcher", with a long, sweeping underline.

Richard Gilcher, President
