Re: Sew Easy Inc.

BEI no. 59-3693048

Dear Sirs:

I am the C.P.A. for Modern Mail Enterprises, Inc., and your notice 8-8-04 (copy enclosed) has been referred to me for response.

The fact of the matter is that the fault of the lateness of this UBR rests with you, not the corporation. For, YOU FAILED TO SEND THE FORM TO THEM BEFORE IT WAS DUE - i.e. before 4-30-04. They cannot complete & send to you the UBR if they do NOT have it. Hence, since it was your mistake in failing to send the form that caused the lateness, and it is a settled principle of law that one cannot profit from one's own mistakes, you ought not to demand the extra $40 fee, and should file it with (cont) the $150 payment which you have.

Speaking generally, your assertion (and that of the legislature!) that everyone "surfs the internet" is false; indeed, many business owners are "computer challenged."

Hence, it was upon of you to expect that most would file online and, hence, that you did not need to send out the forms.

Faced with the same issue, the Dept. of Revenue placed a box on some of their forms where one could check off that a form wasn't needed. Also, they sent out letters advising people that the rules for the intangible tax had changed and, as a result, the forms would no longer be mailed. Why didn't you follow their example? No one mails Ent. received no letter advising them of your intent not to send out forms, and, as a result, did not know that they had to request the form specifically. Hence, they cannot be held accountable for this lateness.

I am returning the form for you to file, and insist that the late fee be waived.

Thank you,
Michael W. Miller
