Dear Sir/Madam:

Re: Document Number P01000007685

I am the sole owner, director, and officer of I.S.S. Enterprises, Inc. I was diagnosed with prostate cancer and subsequently treated. The treatment, which included surgery, was very long, painful, and expensive.

During the time it took to fight the disease I lost most of my business. I have paid everyone I owed money to and it looks like I will be able to operate my business on a full time basis again. I learned thru my bank that my corporation is closed (Admin Dissolution for Annual Report) because I did not file the annual reports.

I do not have any record of receiving the 2003 and 2004 annual reports. During my illness my wife handled my business' mail and she claims she did not receive your UBR forms.

I am asking you to please take all these circumstances under consideration and accept my annual reports without charging me a late fee. My attorney told me that a new corporation costs less than the penalty I will be charged if I wanted to reinstate but I wanted to write to you, hoping you would accept my late reports.

Following are the names of the physicians that treated me as well as their contact info, in case you would like to confirm my illness and treatment:

- George Mekras, MD. 7051 SW 62 Ave. Miami, Fl 33143 Tel. 305-661-8977
- Steven J. Olszewski, MD. Radiation Therapy 6200 SW 73 St. Miami, Fl 33143
- Jorge Echenique, MD. 2931 Coral Way. Miami, Fl 33145 Tel. 305-448-4431

Should you have any questions do not hesitate to contact me at 305-554-7766.

Sincerely,

Esteban Somoano
