Dear Mr. Shivers,

I have been out of town since June and have just gotten my mail. I called and spoke with someone in your office today and I am sending this over night mail. Enclosed is my corrected form, previous letter and check. Please advise me if I need to send any additional payment. I appreciate your time in consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Donald Whatley

Dear Ms Harris,

I am asking that the penalty for late payment be waived for my corporation report. I have not been working due to illness. I have been under the care of Dr. Marie Carmen-Wilson at the Neurological Pain Clinic at Tampa General Hospital (verification of this information can be obtained by calling 813-844-7900 ext. 3). Due to these circumstances my company has not had any activity since last year. I have not even filed my taxes from last year since I could not get my records together to take them to an accountant. It was only this last week when I began to gather up papers to take them that I found the corporation report form. I called immediately to see if something could be done about the late fee and was told by the gentleman named Scott with whom I spoke to write a letter and include the regular fee with the letter. Please advise me if I need to send any additional payment. I appreciate your time in consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Donald Whatley
