To Whom It May Concern:

September 16, 2003

I am writing because there has been a big confusion with reference to the fee for the above matter. I am hoping you can please clear this up for me after reading the explanation.

I have changed address from the old one you have on file. I never received the fee request that was for $ 150.00. Till this day, I still have never seen it. Then in late July of this year, I received a request for payment of $ 550.00 for this. I am attaching a copy of this one and only document I received with reference to this and the actual port office label showing that this was forwarded to my new address with the date of July 8th, 2003 on it. So please take this into consideration as my reason for not having sent it a payment on time. I never got the first request and by the time I received this one, it was already too late. I am enclosing the $ 150.00 fee with this letter now and truly hope you can clear this up for me.

Sincerely,

Osvaldo Pancaro
