Dear Sir or Madam:

After speaking with a staff member in your department it was recommended that I write a letter requesting a waiver of the Corporation Penalties that I have accrued.

All of my corporate documents are sent to my sister's house as I travel a great deal for business. This year she and her husband spent the majority of the year in N. Carolina therefore between my travel and her absence I am just now receiving this request. I immediately ran to my accountant's office that informed me that this was request number three. This was also verified by your above mentioned staff member. I have no idea where the first two requests are nor does my sister.

It is because of my ignorance of this filing and my first offense that I am making a request for a waiver. The situation is a bit more complex then this; however, I'll not labor the issues as I'm sure you hear every excuse under the sun. (at least my dog didn't eat it!)

I have now been instructed that I am to expect my Uniform Business Report every January. I will not be negligent again.

I am sending in a check for the original $150.00 in hopes of a waiver.

I thank you in advance for your time and trouble.

Sincerely,

Zaida Housley
