To Whom it May Concern,

I am having a very difficult problem with a corporation that was just discovered dissolved. The corporation name is "Jollyco, Inc".. I am hopeful that you can please waive the penalty fees and re-instate the corporation. We have never received the 2003 annual report form , nor notice of dissolution of the corporation. The company seems to be having difficulty with the private mail since we have not received most other correspondence that you sent concerning the, "Jollyco Corporation", over the past year or longer. One reason may be that the street as listed on the filed corporation papers was "Clintmoore Road", and somewhere along the line got changed to "Clintmore Road" in your system, which is the wrong spelling. We would appreciate waiving the penalty fees very much, and thank you for your consideration. Enclosed is a check for $300 to cover expenses due.

The address on the corporation papers is 2901 Clintmoore Rd, # 321, however due to difficulties with our mail, please send correspondence to 2689 N.W. 45th St., Boca Raton, Florida, 33434.

Thank You.

Sincerely,
Phyllis L. Feldman, Director

Irving I Feldman, Director
