Attention: Annual Reports Section

Gentlemen:

I am writing this letter to clear up an error as to filing status of J.A. Fardella Inc. I have just received a notice from the Department of State indicating that J.A. Fardella Inc. has not filed it's 2002 Uniform Business Report on time. This is not the case. Our Report was filed on time and the Department of State sent a letter attached copy indicating that the Federal Identification number was missing from the report filed and requested that the number be submitted to them so they could apply the $150.00 accordingly. I immediately sent back a copy of their letter and a copy of my original Uniform Business Report with the ID # filled in the appropriate box. I thought that would answer and solve any problems to that point. Unfortunately the Department of State never received the information attached and presently shows that a report was never filed which is totally inaccurate. Check # 1604 dated 4-16-02 was cashed by the Department of State re: P01000014636. Copy from bank statement attached.

Please correct your records and kindly advise me that the company 's corporate status is in tact.

Thank you very much for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Joseph D. Fardella
Vice President
