Dear Sirs: I only recently received my annual UBR for 2003 which was finally forwarded from my former business address. I changed business addresses in March and sent mail forwarding notices but the UBR documents were not received by me until this week.

Please find enclosed payment for $150.00 and please abate the penalty.

Sincerely,

Edwin R. Beckwith

On August 12 I forwarded to your office a check in the amount of $158.75 for corporation report fees which included a fee for certificate of status. The reason I sent the late payment is due to the following:

1. I NEVER received any prior notification from your office regarding fees due. This is possibly because of the fact that we moved our office location. Please find attached a copy of my August 12 letter clearly requesting that you abate the penalty. Since filing that letter with my check, I have NOT received any type of correspondence from your office! I do not know the reason but I have not received anything as stated in your recent correspondence dated Oct. 9, 2003. You further state that you returned my check and that the report was returned for corrections. I'm enclosing a copy of said check which was deposited by the Dept. of State on August 19, 2003. I have also never received a certificate of status that I have already paid.

I am therefore requesting again that you abate this penalty because of the fact that I NEVER received your original statement for payment.

Further, I'm enclosing your corporation reinstatement form so please rectify this problem and expedite our request for name change.

Sincerely,

Edwin R. Beckwith
