To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter, in hopes of being able to file this paper in delay. My new accountant informed me last week, that while she was preparing my taxes for 2001, she became aware that I had not filed a UBR report. When I asked what that was, she explained what she was talking about, and we came to realize that I had not received any paperwork on it. Whether it was the fault of the postal service, a computer, or a mix-up when I moved, I was not aware at the time that I needed to file it. I also had not received any paperwork from the Federal Gov't. as to my FEI number or my corporation status. As I am new to this process, and I would like to abide by the rules, I am enclosing the required $150.00 fee, and ask that you waive any penalties. It is my hope that now that my documentation has been straightened out and I have retained a reputable accountant, I will no longer have these problems. I thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Mark D Shultz
