Re: Ideal Collection International, Inc.
Document # P01000017721

Dear Sirs:

Attached to this letter is the Uniform Business Report for years 2003 and 2004 along with a payment of $150 per report.

The taxpayer requests that the reports and fees for both years be accepted for the following reasons:

- > In 2003 the booklet that included the 2003 form was never received by the taxpayer.
- > In 2004 the post-card that was sent in lieu of the booklet was never received by the taxpayer.

While recently preparing their 2003 tax return, our firm checked your website to determine if the 2004 Annual Report was filed. We began checking the website for all of our clients to be sure they complied with the annual filing. The website indicated that their corporation was dissolved during 2003 for failure to file the Uniform Business Report for 2003. We immediately contacted the taxpayer, and they informed us as stated above the form for 2003 and the post-card for 2004 were never received.

In summary, we ask you to reinstate this corporation and accept the 2003 and 2004 fees. The taxpayer was not at fault and was unaware of the annual filing requirement since they received no information.

If you have any additional questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

DAILY & TSAGARIS, PA
