To whom it may concern:

I, Felix Arturo Romero, President of Felix Arturo Romero, PA, a Florida Profit Corp., do hereby request a "Waive of the Reinstatement Fee" due to the following explanatory reasons:

On or about March 2003, I mailed a USPS Money Order for $150.00 to your Department to cover the 2003 filing fee. Unfortunately, I did not send it certified with a return receipt because I always rely on the good service of the United States Postal Service.

Since I never got back the Money Order I sent you, I assumed you received it and since I never received a note from you I concluded the Money Order was cashed and my filing documents processed. Since I am back in Orlando and I did send a request of change of address and even called the Division of Corp., and I believe I talked to Shawn (I think so) he never mentioned anything about my Corporation being expired and/or dissolved.

I even sent a payment to do an ammendment.

My problem is that I do not even have a copy of the Money Order with me since I always wai 3 months just in case a problem arises, well I guess I lost there $150.00 because I have no means to show the USPS that I ever bought a M.O. for such amount and thus have no way to find out if that M.O. was ever cashed.

I would like you to please reconsider waiving the Reinstatement Fee and accept, this time, a Money Order for the $150.00 (Which this time I will send it Certified and with a returned receipt)

Honestly speaking I never thought this was going to happen. I am always very concern about doing things the right way without taking any shortcuts.

Furthermore, when I filed the Corporate Taxes, I sent it to you via first class US Mail.

I do not understand why the Money Order never made it, and I sent both at about the same time, from California.

Thank you very much for your kind understanding and consideration to this matter.

I am looking forward to your prompt reply.

I, Felix Arturo Romero, do hereby attest under Oath that all this information is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Sincerely,

Without Prejudice

Felix Arturo Romero,
As President for Felix Arturo Romero, P.A.
