A director shall not be liable for dividends illegally declared, distributions illegally made to stockholders or any other action taken by reliance in good faith upon the financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct by an officer having charge of its books or accounts or a financial statement certified by a Certified Public Accountant to fairly reflect the financial condition of the corporation; nor shall he be liable, if, in good faith, in determining the amount available for dividends or distributions, he considers the assets to be of their book value.

ARTICLE X

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the shareholders, and approved by a shareholders meeting by fifty-one (51%) percent of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon, unless all of the directors and all of the shareholders sign a written statement manifesting their intentions that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be adopted.

ARTICLE XI

Any action that may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders of this corporation may be taken without a meeting, if consent in writing setting forth the action shall be signed by all, but not less than all, of the shareholders of the corporation entitled to vote on the action and shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation. This consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote at a shareholders' meeting. If all of the directors, severally and collectively, likewise, consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the corporation, and the writing or the writings evidencing their consent are filed with the Secretary of the corporation, the action shall be valid as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporators have executed these Articles of Incorporation this 16 day of February, 2001.
