To whom it may concern:

October 22, 2002

I received this Notice of Administrative Dissolution of Revocation today. Concerned, I immediately called the number on the form to understand why I was being sent this document and the person who answered my call was kind enough to explain that it was because I failed to submit the Uniform Business Report.

As I explained to the person on the phone, my business, DocuTrends Business Solutions, is a new business, just in its second year. I, the new business owner, was not aware of the requirement of filing the Uniform Business Report which accounts for why I did not file the document. If I did receive the document, which I do not recall, I obviously did not recognize what it was.

I also explained to your office that I wanted to rectify this situation as quickly as possible, and I was directed to write this letter, fill in the enclosed form and include a check for $150.

I hope I have completed everything to your satisfaction. As you might imagine, becoming a new business owner is quite a learning experience. Thank you for your understanding.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 727-571-1600 ext. 19.

Sincerely,

Heather Limerick, President
